

MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSIONS

INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF ORGANIZATION THEORY AND BEHAVIOR

Our journal always welcomes manuscript submissions and symposium proposals. Manuscripts consist of two types: regular articles and symposiums. In addition, there is a book review section.

We particularly welcome symposium proposals. If you see a major theme or issue that a single paper can't cover in depth, you can submit a symposium proposal with a brief outline of what will be developed in depth in a number of papers.

In order to save time and mailing costs, please e-mail your manuscripts, symposium proposals and book reviews to the responsible editor as follows:

1. For research paper:

Arthur Sementelli, Associate Professor, Managing Editor
Florida Atlantic University
E-Mail: sementel@fau.edu

2. For book reviews:

Catherine Horiuchi, Assistant Professor, Book Review Editor
E-Mail: cmhoriuchi@usfca.edu

3. For symposium proposals:

Khi V. Thai, Professor, Editor
E-mail: thai@fau.edu

For all questions related to the journal and suggestions for improvement of the journal quality, please feel free to contact Professor Khi V. Thai.
